MORE SMOKE THAN FLAMES poured from a home under construction on 192nd st. in Mokena last Saturday, when a fire of undetermined origin was quickly extinguished by the fire department. It broke out late afternoon

Saturday, but the fire department soon brought it under control and little damage was done. The home is being constructed by Byron Nelson contractors for Virgil Smith of Mokena. (Marvin Smith photo)

Annual Meeting

Engineer to Address Orland C. C.

Mark Lovejoy, of DeSoto B. McCabe & Associates, engineers for the village of Orland Park, will be the guest speaker at the annual meeting of the Orland Park Chamber of Commerce tonight (Dec. 18) at 8 o'clock. The meeting will be held in the new American Legion hall at 9449 West 143rd st.

Mr. Lovejoy will discuss the progress of plans for the sewage treatment plant to be built in Orland by the Sanitary District, and will outline the problems involved in connecting the homes north of 147th st. to the treatment plant. He will also discuss the land use map, which has been recorded in Cook County as the official plan of the village of Orland Park.

This is the first annual meeting of the Chamber of Commerce. The Chamber was organized one year ago with a charter membership of thirty-two.

Three new directors will be elected. Those members of the board of directors whose terms expire are Kenneth White of White-Meyer Wood Products, Inc., Orville Schmiedeknecht of the Schmiedeknecht Funeral Home, and Margaret Loebe of Loebe Realty Co. There are nine directors. Three are elected each year for a term of three years.

The Chamber of Commerce extends an invitation to anyone interested in the future growth of the village of Orland Park to attend this meeting.

New Lenox Schools

Get High Mark on Fire Inspection

Inspection of the New Lenox schools found both buildings clean and fire resistant and teachers and pupils well trained in the maneuvers necessary for speedy evacuation, it was announced by Supt. John Oster.

According to the superintendent the inspection was made the latter part of last week by Fire Chief Frank Vally and James Sampson. Sampson is safety engineer at the Ordnance Ammunition Command at the Joliet arsenal and is also chairman of the PTA Safety committee.

A thorough inspection was made of both buildings, the Haven school and the Oakview school. A check was made on the exits from the rooms as well as the building and the general housekeeping was marked as unusually good. Charles Werner, building supervisor and his staff, were praised by the investigators for their work in keeping the buildings free of waste that might cause fire. No damp cloths are allowed to accumulate in bundles and oily rags are kept separated and in covered metal containers.

Both buildings are of one-story construction. Haven school is the older and is made of tile and brick. The floors are of concrete, covered with asphalt tile, even in the gymnasium, and the hallways have tile wainscoting. Walls are either of plaster or concrete block. The ceilings are fire resistant.

The boilerroom is in the basement which is under the school at Haven, but the boilers are inspected periodically and the heating plant is further equipped with all possible safety devices that operate automatically.

The Oakview school is built of brick, tile, steel and concrete. The floors, like at Haven, are of concrete, covered with asphalt tile and the corridors are lined with tile. The heating plant is underground but is not under the school. The inspectors complimented the New Lenox school board for the safety and fire prevention features built into the two schools.

The Haven building, being older, has wood frames around doors and windows. The Oakview school uses metal frames. It would be difficult for a fire to gain any headway in either school, it was pointed out, and very difficult for it to start.

Plan $247,000 Bowling Alley For Mokena

Plans for a 12 lane bowling alley costing $247,000 were aired before the Mokena village board at its meeting Tuesday night by the prospective owners, Harry Fee and Jerry Nelson, who now operate a Standard Oil station on Wolf road.

They asked for an OK on the proposal. The bowling lanes would be located on the east side of Wolf road, south of LaPorte rd. This section already is zoned for business.

There is the possibility that it might be annexed to the village and in that event Fee and Nelson wanted some assurance from the village that they would be able to get a bar license. They want to operate a cocktail lounge in conjunction with the alleys, they said.

The building that would house the alleys would be 140 feet by 70 feet and of brick and block construction. The prospective owners said that they hoped to get bowling classes from Lincoln-Way high school in the afternoons and that the bar would be closed during the afternoons when teenage bowlers would be present.

The village board indicated it would consider the request and invited Fee and Nelson to come back next month for an answer.

The board adopted a resolution placing it on an agenda basis, in keeping with the system followed by village councils in neighboring communities.

Persons who wish to address the council or have questions to submit will be required to inform Village Clerk Alvin Sorenson of their intentions so that he may assign them a time.

Sorenson may be reached by telephone at Mokena 2711. Mayor James Marti pointed out that everyone was welcome to attend the village board meeting and no invitations were necessary but added that too frequently persons came in to discuss things and that so many joined in that points were lost and too (Continued on page 8)

Parent Groups Back Expansion Program In Election Saturday

The special election asking the voters for approval of a $500,000 bond issue will be held Saturday, Dec. 20. Polling places have been established in the four village public elementary schools and in the Ann Rutledge School located in Lincoln Estates. The polls will be open from 12 o'clock noon until 7:00 p.m.

The special election, for the purpose of providing funds to enlarge the present building, has been approved by the board of education, the local Parent-Teacher Group, the Lincoln-Way Band Boosters, Lincoln-Way Lions executive committee, and cooperation extended by the various local parent-teacher organization.

Board President A. H. Krusemark pointed out the enrollment expectations for the next several years. He indicated that by 1960 an enrollment of 850-900 would be expected. Mr. Krusemark pointed out that this growth would continue for many years and that the present building would eventually need to be doubled in size.

Many crowded conditions are already evident with seventeen classes having over thirty students enrolled. Most educational authorities recommend class sizes under this maximum standard of thirty.

All classrooms are presently used every regular period during the day in addition to emergency study areas being held in the cafeteria, corridors, shops and locker rooms. For example, the cafeteria has become a gymnasium after school where all wrestling practice is conducted. Each day when school is dismissed, three basketball teams, two wrestling squads and all of the girls out for their G.A.A. activities, are all competing for the limited space available.

Increased property valuations since 1952 have greatly helped Lincoln-Way's financial problems. This increase has amounted to approximately $10,000,000 from $24,564,271 in 1952 to an estimated $34,500,000. Since the original bonds issued have been partially retired the district can now afford this new addition to the building.

President Krusemark and school attorney Dale Nicholson also explained that the actual tax rate would be only slightly increased the first year and then reduced to the present rate. They pointed out this 5c increase the first year would be required to pay the first interest coupons for eighteen months rather than for the regular twelve months period. Thereafter, interest payments would be collected and paid yearly.

Will Judge Yule Decorations In Mokena Dec. 23

The annual home decoration contest held each Christmas at Mokena is expected to have more entries than ever this year, according to word received by those in charge.

The event is sponsored by the Mokena Civic Association and all householders in the Mokena community may participate. Cash prizes will be awarded. First prize is $15, second $10, and third, $5 according to Charles Swanberg.

No formal entry is required. The judges will tour the community next Tuesday night, Dec. 23, and pick the winners. The Civic Association also is in charge of the Community Christmas tree, erected on the Rock Island parking lot along Front street. There will not be a distribution of candy and gifts at the tree this year, it was announced.

Early Deadline Set for Next Week's Issue

Next week the Christmas edition of the Semmler newspapers will be published on Wednesday instead of Thursday. Therefore, news items usually due on Monday, should be submitted Friday, for insertion in next week's issue.

Extend Time for Tax Complaints From New Lenox

Reassessment or adjustment—that is the question for which New Lenox property owners are awaiting an answer.

The storm of protest that followed publication of the assessed valuation of lots and farm lands in New Lenox township is still seething but it is expected that eventually the situation will be straightened out.

For one thing the time for which complaints may be filed with the board of review, which would have expired today has been extended pending further study of the tax books and assessments.

Word to this effect was received yesterday by Don Wennlund, of the New Lenox Taxpayers Equality Association, which originally protested the assessments, from Meade Baltz, chairman of the Will County board of supervisors and as such, chairman of the board of review.

Floyd Krapf, of Green Garden, who was county treasurer at the time the assessments were made, said yesterday that he had talked with Baltz and the new treasurer, Roy Dierfer, and that he had requested an opportunity to study the books and assessment rolls. This request was readily granted, Mr. Krapf said, and added that by this time next week he expected to be able to make a statement.

"I know now that any inequalities evident are not of my doing," Mr. Krapf said yesterday. "I endeavor to prevail upon all assessors to follow a pattern so that assessments would be uniform and of a figure that would gain an equalizing factor of one for Will county."

(Under the Butler act the state department of revenue is empowered to set an equalizing factor, sometimes called a multiplier because it is used to multiply the assessor's assessments to bring property up to its full market value. Actually the equalizer figure is only expected to be about 55% of the market value so that assessments made on such a basis would be expected to carry a multiplier of one. In other words the assessed value would be the equalized value.)

Mr. Krapf went on to explain that under a new law the board of review has the power to order a reassessment or establish a multiplier for such townships whose assessments would require a greater factor than one, to prevent hardship on persons in those areas where the valuations were up sufficiently high to get a one factor.

In the past, when other township assessments in Will county were ranging from 11 to 16 percent of the fair market value, the figure in New Lenox township is said to have averaged about three per cent and in Grete township it was even lower, according to information obtained at the court house.

When the assessor's figures came in for New Lenox this summer it was decided at the courthouse that they were still too low and Mr. Krapf as ex-officio treasurer of assessments, ordered a reassessment.

Mr. Wennlund said yesterday that the New Lenox Taxpayers Equality Association wanted it understood that neither the Lincoln-Way high school board, the New Lenox grade school board, nor any other school board in the district asked for a revaluation of the property or asked that the valuations be raised. The taxpayers group is particularly concerned lest some persons might attempt to use the assessment situation against the Lincoln-Way bond referendum that is before the voters Saturday, Dec. 20.

At Lincoln-Way

Students Have Chance For Trip Abroad

Since Lincoln-Way high school is participating in the American Field Service program this year thru the sponsorship of Ella Juul Jensen, a Danish girl attending Lincoln-Way, it is now eligible to submit candidates for the summer school and school program carried out by this organization. At the present time eight students have indicated that they would be interested in applying for travel abroad. These students have already started on the first step which is the completion of the preliminary applications.

The purpose of the program is to increase the understanding and friendship among the peoples of the world by giving American Teenagers an opportunity to live with families in a foreign land. There are two separate programs; in the summer program the students live with a foreign family for six to seven weeks. In becoming the "son" or "daughter" of these families, sharing in their daily life and usual summer activities, they have the opportunity of learning about the life and people of another country. The summer program takes place during July and August. The school program is essentially the same as the summer but the length of time is approximately five months (the exact time depends upon the country involved), and it takes place during the fall and early winter.

In order to be an applicant for this program, a student must be at least 16 years of age by June 30, 1959, must have at least two years of a foreign language completed by June, 1959, must be a junior in high school, and must have an excellent academic record. These candidates must also have personal qualifications that will enable them to adapt well to different situations and have a sense of responsibility for the purposes of the Americans Abroad program.

This year homes will be open to AFS Summer Program students in countries of South and Central America, Europe, the Far East and the Middle East. The school program will take place in several countries of Europe and New Zealand. Candidates cannot state preference for a particular country.

The American Field Service is a private, non-profit, educational organization whose purpose is the furthering of understanding and good will among the peoples of the world. This organization was founded in 1913 and has continued to grow at a rapid pace since that time.

Lincoln-Way has a special committee which was established last year composed of teachers, students, and adults in the community to screen the applications and recommend the candidates for this program. This does not mean that Lincoln-Way will automatically have a student or students sent abroad as there are many other schools in the country involved in this program.

The cost of sponsoring a student is $525. This sum includes the cost of round-trip ocean transportation; round trip travel abroad between port and final destination (meals included); health insurance, and the final week-end abroad; chaperonage; orientation; and other administrative expenses. All costs must be provided by the candidate and his family or by a local school or community sponsor. In sponsoring Ella, the Lincoln-Way Student Council raised approximately $650.00 thru the sale of the birthday calendars. The Student Council is discussing at present what share of the expenses it will contribute in helping with this project.

Traffic Condition Red

Law to Crack Down on Violators

Illinois traffic safety officials have declared an emergency "Traffic Condition Red" alert for the Christmas holidays, which starts at 6 p.m. Dec. 24 and continues thru midnight Dec. 28.

The Illinois Division of Traffic Safety has alerted all state and local law enforcement agencies to the tremendous increase expected in traffic during the holiday.

All motorists are being asked to exercise the utmost driving care, caution and courtesy while driving in the heavy traffic.

City, county and state police will step up road patrols. Traffic violators will be dealt with firmly, the division said.

Growing concern has been expressed by safety officials as the holiday approaches. Last year, 15 persons died during Christmas holidays.

However, that holiday was but three days in length while the holiday this year covers four days and six hours.

The overall purpose of Traffic Condition Red is to warn motorists of the imminent danger in driving during the holiday, and to assure that all police and safety officials have developed a system for swift employment of every effective means to prevent accidents during the dangerous holiday.

has the protection of a teammate, Larry Iwena, who is crowded out in the second picture which reveals Mr. Ruhle looking for a space to shoot or pass while an unidentified eagle is waving his arms and fluttering his hands to hinder his ef-

Eagles Surprise Rams

Surprising everyone, Sandburg high easily disposed of a "good" Reavis team on Friday evening for its first SW Suburban conference victory of the 1958-59 season, 53-43.

It appeared that Sandburg might do well to win a game this season, but they caused the prophets of loss to halt their chatter by this convincing win.

Coach Massic of Reavis felt that Sandburg was much improved over its early season games.

Adams of Sandburg considered the game a good victory for his team, but he recognized, "That Reavis was very, cold in its shooting. I guess they (Reavis) shot about 20%."

"My boys combined strong defense with a powerful rebounding game," smiled the Sandburg mentor.

Don Arnold did an especially good job of getting the ball off the backboards. Arnold had a good weekend (point and rebounding). The junior is becoming a fine basketball player—probably the best Adams has at the moment.

Sandburg is idle in the SW Suburban League over the week-end. The Eagles meet Hammond Clark on Saturday and then are idle over the Christmas holiday.

They will re-open on Jan. 3 at Argo. The next league game is with Oak Lawn on Friday evening, Jan. 9—at Oak Lawn.

Crippled Knights No Match For Sandburg

Injuries Keep 2 L-W Regulars On Sidelines

When the Eagle gets off the ground he can fly!

Yes, the Eagle can reach lofty heights. Just ask Bill Adams coach of the Carl Sandburg Eagles.

Adams men dropped their first three games of the season, but over the week-end evened up the season's ledger at 3 and 3.

Sandburg proved to be too much for the injury laden Lincoln-Way team. Kruzich's men took a game beating on Friday night, but that wasn't the worst of the story. Tom Peterson and Jerry Hachlein were lost for a few games. Both were badly injured in the Rich game. Peterson is in the hospital and Hachlein sustained an ankle injury.

This not withstanding—Sandburg outthrust the boys from New Lenox. Playing a fast-moving, sort of driving game, the Eagles clawed the Lincoln-Way team for a relatively easy, 58-40 victory.

It was the first half blues for Kruzich again. The second period proved the undoing. Here the Eagles were good for 22 points and L-W managed three baskets. Playing on almost "even terms" thruout the remainder of the game wasn't enough to overcome this large deficit.

Junior center Don Arnold played a superb game for Sandburg as he rebounded with good consistency. Taking the pass from a guard, Arnold moved to the right and popped shot with regularity from the keyhole position. The 6'1" lad totaled 13 points for the evening.

Adams was really surprised by his teams double victory over the week-end. "Reavis was just down and so was Lincoln-Way after the shellacking by Rich," volunteered the coach. Adams is not one to say much about the ability of his boys—but the shooting of Sandburg is not often duplicated in a first half it was fabulous with 11 for 20 shots.

"Lincoln-Way was just lifeless," lamented Kruzich. "In fact, we will practice plenty this week. Our mistakes were too elemental."

Actually, the Knights, minus its highest scorer in league competition, Peterson, showed life in three of the four quarters. The Knights led at the end of the first period, 13-10. "Skip" Kruzich tied with Jerry McBride for second place in scoring with 13 points. Kruzich was good for 5 out of 10 attempts from the field. The sophomore from Lincoln-Way looked good in spots, but still definitely lacks the polish to make him a real star in the SW Suburban.

Sandburg showed plenty of life under the basket. They took at least three rebounds to every one for Lincoln-Way. George Ruhle gained the top amount of rebounds for L-W and tied Don Arnold of Sandburg for leadership in this department.

Adams lads have shown in the last three games an ability to shoot—something that was woefully lacking in the first couple of games. Maybe the lightning is striking again. As a frosh-soph team—the Blue and Gold came to life after three early losses and then started to win. Thus far history has repeated itself.

Sandburg frosh-soph defeated the Lincoln-Way youngsters in an overtime game.

Bremen Matmen Take Knights; Turney Pushes Kent to Limit

Bremen wrestlers defeated Lincoln-Way at New Lenox last Friday evening by a score of, 36-18. There were twelve individual matches. The Lincoln-Way frosh-soph grapplers defeated the Braves, 24-21.

Bremen's conference champ of the 127-pound weight class was given quite a scare in the match. Ray Turney, a sophomore from L-W, had Kent, the Braves men in a pin hold, but couldn't quite get the second shoulder on the canvas.

Ray led right up thru the third period of the individual match. Kent showed his reason for being champion. He reversed in the final period and pinned the L-W sophomore—a coming prospect.

Coach Ron Larsen of L-W expects plenty from Turney in the future. Summary of the wrestling:

Bremen vs. Lincoln-Way Dec. 12
Split: Varsity, Bremen 36, Lincoln-Way 18; Frosh-Soph, Lincoln-Way 24, Bremen 21.

Rockets Pile Up Big Store of Points in Trimming Lincoln-Way

The Rich Rockets defeated Lincoln-Way high school last Friday evening at Park Forest in an easy contest, 79-44.

"Coach Joe Kruzich of L-W said, 'I was right—Rich is as good as I have been saying they are. We stopped their outside shooting, but they beat us blind in close-up shooting. Reavis stopped the inside stuff on Saturday and Drage hit for 28 from the outside."

"There is one difficulty that Rich has and it will show up against a real good team, with height. Wagner and Gorman are very poor shots. On two occasions Wagner took at least six rebound shots before getting a closeup bucket."

"The big men could do this against us—but I wonder what they will do with DeVries and Oak Lawn or with Evergreen and Jenner and Company."

It would seem that Rich has been winning on muscle and thus remains to be seen—whether or not the Rockets can match a good hot shooting team with height.

Kruzich felt that "I failed to get my kids to do what I wanted them to do. A coach's job is to do that. Much of the humiliating defeat must be laid at my door!" A press by Rich rattled the Knights and gave the men from Park Forest a 51-26 first half lead.

It appears that Kruzich just didn't have the material to cope with such giants as Wagner and Gorman.

Phil Wagner netted 29 points for the winning Rich team. "Skip" Kruzich was the top scorer for L-W with 13 points. Kruzich should average 10 points per game—not bad for a sophomore.

Height was the real answer in Rich's win. Wagner and Gorman shot at will. Wagner had nearly 38 shots alone—most of them efforts at tip-ins. The smaller L-W team was fouling in trying to reach for the bound of the board. Burkhardt didn't substitute until the game was nearly over—so Rich showed everything it had.

At the end of the first quarter the first three starting men—forwards and center each had 4 fouls and one guard had 3. These were all made in a desperate effort to stop Wagner and Gorman from shooting 6 and 8 times, before finally connecting. "If the big men hit any percentage at all for Rich the score would have been over the 100 mark," concluded Kruzich.

Oak Lawn and DeVries visit New Lenox on Friday evening, Dec. 19. With Peterson and Hachlein gone the prospect of victory is very slight. However, if the Knights were up—Oak Lawn would realize a contest. L-W cannot be counted on as the league door mat just yet.

The Rich frosh-soph team beat Lincoln-Way in the last 17 seconds of the contest.

Peterson Out Of Hospital

Tom Peterson, Lincoln-Way, basketball is out of the hospital and back in school.

Tom suffered an injury to his nose in the practice session the night before the Rich game. The bridge of his nose was shattered.

He hopes to be ready to play again in the holiday tournament to be held at Naperville.

In the Bremen game, only SW Suburban conference game he appeared in, Peterson led the L-W scoring.

SW Suburban Schedule is Light

By Dean Dallas

Rich faces its first real test in the SW Suburban League on Friday evening as they travel to Evergreen Park. Rich will not be home at the cozy confines where they are almost impregnable, but on a foreign field.

Evergreen Park is not a soft touch—by any means. They lost by a few points to "very good" Oak Lawn and then beat Bremen last Saturday evening at the Redmen's home court.

Coach Meson of Evergreen has a strong front wall, supported by Dick LePore, the men who beat Bremen, and Dick Whittington.

Rich will face the first team of any comparable height, with a couple of excellent shooters. The Rockets should win, but Meson is by no means conceding the game. It is the game of the week in the SW Suburban.

Bremen will try to get off the floor after two stunning, close, defeats at the hands of Oak Lawn and Evergreen Park last week-end. The Braves didn't look anything like championship material in either game—in fact, they look just ragged.

Reavis had a very bad shooting night in losing to Sandburg, but made things interesting with Rich. At home Reavis is rough—they beat Thornton Fractional there. Bremen has no easy night—for Reavis could easily upset.

It is uphill for the Braves—if they lose on Friday it looks like curtains for another conference crown. Rich isn't likely to lose more than a game or two—if they lose that many.

Lincoln-Way will have its collective hands full on Friday evening at New Lenox. The home crowd should add some spirit to the injury-riddled five, but it certainly won't be enough to stop Henry DeVries and Oak Lawn.

One, however, should expect an improvement over the Sat-

Rich Wallops Reavis 78-64

Rich has yet to live up to preseason predictions of greatness! Saturday evening they managed to defeat the Reavis second squad by a score of 78-64. Coach Massic of Reavis was without a starter, early in the fourth quarter. The first six men fouled out.

"Phil Wanger is not the ball player that he is reputed to be," that Massic. "I believe that Oak Lawn would have beaten Rich tonight, but I also think that Rich has the potential to improve."

Don Drage scored 28 points for the Rockets in their high scoring fracas with Rich. Most of Drage's points were long set-shots.

It is more obvious every game that the schedule favors Rich. The Rockets have met urday evening showing against Carl Sandburg—come Friday evening. If Kruzich gets his boys up—who knows—we might see another contest—similar to the Bremen-L-W battle.

Week-end card:

Friday:
Bremen at Reavis
Oak Lawn at Lincoln-Way
Rich at Evergreen
Saturday:
Sandburg at Hammond Clark.

Friday's Results:
Sandburg 58; Reavis 43
Oak Lawn 69; Bremen 64
Rich 79; L-W 44
Saturday's Results:
Sandburg 58; L-W 40

Reavis	0	2

the league's easiest competition in its first three games. Bremen, Oak Lawn, and Evergreen Park—all looking somewhat like contenders—are knocking each other around, while they get the early season kinks out.

Rich will probably get better as the season goes on, but the other teams stand to improve more and thus a definite advantage, won and lost wise.

Burkhardt is not at all pleased with the performance of the SW Suburban favorite. "We haven't played a real good game this season."

Massic, whose team meets Bremen on Friday evening, said, "I just hope that my boys are ready. If they are ready we will take Bremen as we should have taken Rich."

"The Sandburg game was a nightmare! We couldn't do anything right," concluded the Reavis coach.

Methodists Dump St. George

The Methodists continued their unbeaten streak in the Tinley Park Church league on Tuesday evening by beating St. George, 56-42. In the nightcap the Nazarenes easily defeated Zion Lutheran, 51-32.

The third quarter was too much for the Catholics! The 9-point verdict was almost the margin of victory for the Methodists. The Methodists won this game by stopping the offensive play of Ron Gallina. Ron had netted six buckets for 12 points in the first half—exactly one-half of the Catholic points. These were all good shots from around the foul circle. He scored only one basket in the third period.

Elmer Ginter of the Methodists made the offensive difference for his team in that third quarter. Elmer hit for four shots—good for eight points. Ginter was the real reason the Methodists won the contest. He not only scored best for them, with 16, but included the best rebounding effort in the contest.

The Methodists are proving to be a second-half team. The last two, relatively close ball games, they have been in were won by fine play in the final two quarters.

Ginter and Gallina were tied for top scoring honors with 16 apiece. Ken Webster and Wes Landau, 6' 5" center, netted 12 for the Methodists.

Nazarene easily defeated Zion Lutheran in a second half surge for the 19-point victory. The team recorded its second highest scoring effort over the past two seasons—the other was a 56-point effort against Trinity Lutheran. Zion moved out with a quick, 4-1 lead, but it was short lived and the Nazarenes moved to an 18-12 first half lead.

The fast-break proved to be the weapon of victory for the winners. Bob Culp on the receiving end of the pass—was good for 19 points.

Zion failed in its fifth effort for victory. One can expect more from them as the season progresses.

St. George remained in second place and the Nazarene held third.

Culp of the Nazarenes was top scorer for the game with 19—Rev. Dallas Mucci of the same team was second with Mrs. Tony Bettenhausen watched from the stands and Valerie Rice had disappeared.

"We have done very well," suggested Tony. We are raising a family, "I think a good one."

So this was the year of victory for Tony—wifewise and racewise.

He drove in the mid-west that summer and started to establish the now fabled name of the race track. Now, where the stinky, black smoke of the burning rubber reaches the nostril—Tony Bettenhausen's races are recalled to memory.

Seventy-six events were the total for the three month period. He was driving a Willison-Hoffenhausner. His total earning for the summer, for which he received 40% was $5316.

Tony was settling into his mold! Dashing, exciting, romantic—to say the least. Married—practically—on the race track. THIS is Tony Bettenhausen.

NEXT WEEK: BETTENHAUSEN WINS FIRST TROPHY WITH CHEWING GUM!

Tony Wins a Race and a Wife

By DEAN DALLAS (Sports Editor)

Miles Standish loved Priscilla very much.

John Alden was instructed to handle the courting!

Miles Standish lost a wife. John Alden gained a wife! "Speak for yourself John!"

Valrie Rice was working in the shop in Tinley Park, now known as Rudy's. Tony Bettenhausen returned from the east, beaten, but unbowed. He came back to midwest racing here in Chicago. He also comes back to the Mrs. Bettenhausen.

Bud Berg didn't play the part of John Alden when Tony was away.

Back to Tinley Park. Now Tony was in earnest about Valerie, but he had no work and a few debts. With usual confidence, he continued to court his ex-wife.

Spring came and it was going and Tony was still driving the losing cars, but experience was beginning to tell. The "charger" was getting closer. Where it was numerous laps, etc.—now it was seconds he was behind.

Indianapolis was only a spark in his eye, but one he intended to fan.

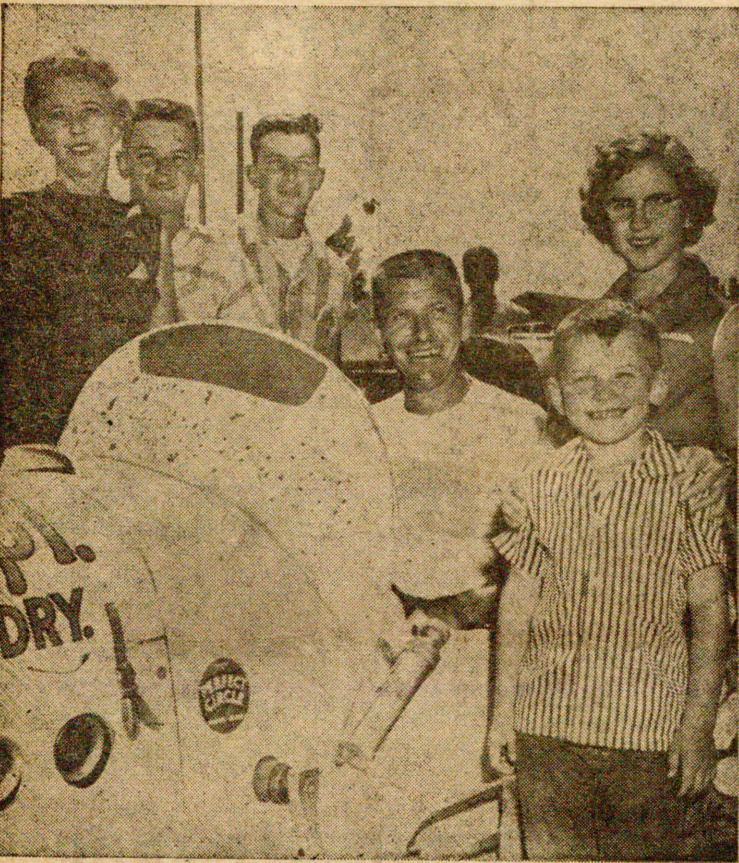

Valerie was courted on the side. Actually, Tony was driving six nights a week. This racing was not child's play—it was work and plenty of it, but Bettenhausen was beginning to thrive on it.

Then Tony won at Crown Point on July 14. Things were looking up... Maybe Bettenhausen could drive a car! Tony would drive at Crown Point in the morning and then over to Riverview Stadium on the North Side of Chicago in the evening.

Romantic! Certainly, much like the entire life of this man was his decision (second one) to get married. At mid-night the decision "to try again as Tony puts it was made.

So at Dubuque, Iowa—they made the second try. The marriage ceremony was over—not with fanfare, but certainly romantic.

Honeymoon was the race track. Tony was driving a car the next night at Wash Stadium in St. Louis, Mo. and who is now, and again Valerie Rice in October of 1939.

Tony was a little like Miles. He sent in Bud (John Alden) Berg to urge Miss Rice to come out. This is where the similarity to Miles ends. She came out and Tony did the talking—as he usually does. He talked fast, furious as he always does—he was in a hurry and apt to be gone, as usual.

Word reached Tinley Park that Emilie Andres brother, a race car driver, had been killed in Dallas. Tony and Emil invited Tony to go to Dallas and help salvage the material possessions. Tony broke his date immediately and was off to the southwest. Valerie didn't know what had become of him. However, 1940—Still on victory. Spring was stretching into summer—Tony was driving as often and as "wild" as possible. Finally, on Mother's Day, just before summer, Tony brot his midget into the winner's circle for the first time. It was down at Urbana. It was fitting that a son of Lincolnland should cop his first contest here in the homeland.

Purses were different then. He received a total of $48 for driving the winner. He sent home a money order for $25. But he was a winner... He was a winner... What he had been sure of—was certain. He could drive a race car and win. FARMING was out and Tony (Eugene Melvin) Bettenhausen was a race car driver. However, the checkered flag of

A STALEMATE—Top man here is Jerry Gorman of Sandburg's wrestling team, who is trying to pin Paul Wolf of Naperville. At the time Sandburg was ahead by a terrific margin so the photographer didn't stick around to see who was the winner of this one. He said, tho, that he tho they tied. Certainly they are tied here but not nearly so much as they can get entangled in this wrestling business. A fellow sometimes has a hard time singling out his own leg. (Marvin Smith photo)

Eagle Matmen Top Rich

Carl Sandburg wrestled its way to two convincing victories on Friday and Saturday. Friday, Sandburg took, basketball giant Rich, 27-19, then on Saturday afternoon they floor-ed Naperville by, 34-15.

Coach Joe Devine is looking for the best season since he started wrestling at Sandburg five years ago.

Allen Jaklich, 175-pounder, of the Eagles, who was considered the number two wrestler in his weight class in the state last year, swept two matches over the week-end by pinning his opponent in each round.

138-pounder Dave Gibson of Sandburg netted two victories over the week-end—one by pin and the other by a 5-1 margin.

Temperature Drops and So Does Championship Hopes of Bremen

The weather was sub-zero game over the week-end and the Bremen Braves shooting was in a similar condition as they dropped two close decisions, one to Oak Lawn on Friday evening, 69-64, and the other at Midlothian on Saturday, 63-66, to Evergreen Park.

Both were heartbreaking losses for Coach Bill Brown's team. They were tied or were within hailing distance at the closing moments of each defeat the Braves, 63-66.

Friday it was too much of a 5' 5" Henry DeVries of Oak Lawn. DeVries did a great job of outbounding a rather quiet Bremen team and adding 30 points to his season total.

It was sub-zero shooting at Oak Lawn on Friday evening. Brown's lad hit on 4 of their first 21 shots—that is far below the usual average. That is far below most of the poor team averages. That seemed to be enough to stop the Bremen! Enough to stop any team.

With about a minute to go the Braves had crept to within a point, 62-61, of the victors, but a personal foul, and a technical foul gave Oak Lawn a four point lead and the Braves lost heart.

That needed spark just wasn't there on Friday. The Braves didn't show the same kind of life and shooting that gave them an easy victory over Blue Island. It was one of the poorest showings they have made this season.

Jerome Randle El led the scoring with 17 points—again, four of the starting five Braves reached the double figures.

Saturday the Evergreen Park—sort-of-blind-fast-break—proved to be too much, coupled with the outside shooting of Lepore.

Usually reliable Jim Manaoi wasn't hitting the net and John Jenner and company of Evergreen Park was plucking off the lions share of the rebounds. Bremen's tall men still haven't learned how to use their height in rebounding.

"We were cold in our shooting," lamented Brown. "These are the best five boys I've got and they have the material to win. There will be no changes in personnel, but we are certainly experimenting with offensive and defensive changes. You may see Bremen play a new kind of game."

The Braves championship stock took a nose-dive over this poor week-end. Considered the best possibility to stop Rich and repeat as SW Suburban conference champs—the Braves have looked far too ragged to do it. Maybe third place will be a high finish.

Lepore scored 23 points for Evergreen and Bob Rodgers was high scorer for Bremen with 22. Rogers scored 14 of his points in the final quarter as he almost single handedly overcame a 9-point deficit that Evergreen had built-up. But Lepore's desperation basket ended the hopes and gave the Bremen team its second straight defeat. The season's mark is now three wins and three losses.

Bremen's frosh - soph team played around over the week-end in drubbing; first, Oak Lawn, 58-26, and then plastering a 45-25 defeat on Evergreen Park. Bremen led 30-8 at one point in the Evergreen game. It looks like the Braves are raising the team that will again break the Rich strangle hold on the SW Suburban title.

Most everyone saw action for Bremen in the two week-end victories of the frosh-soph.

EAGLE MATMEN—

Ron Mehling, a 127-pounder transfer from Reavis did not appear as Sandburg forfeited to both Rich and Naperville in that classification.

Devine's good men are winning. A team can win the state title if three of its men can take state championships. Sandburg has two men who were in the state finals last year—both are winning again this season. Future looks bright for Sandburg to at least cop the conference crown.

Reavis and Oak Lawn will still be there and mighty tough. Lincoln-Way should have a better than usual team.

Council Suggests Girl Scout Stamps As Christmas Gift

This week the South Cook County Girl Scout Council suggests a Christmas gift which every Girl Scout would like to find in her stocking. This gift is in the form of Camp stamps which are used as cash when registering for Day Camp or Camp Manistee.

To start a Camp stamp saving book could mean the beginning of a valuable savings program for Scouts of all ages. These camp stamps are available in any amount and can be obtained by calling or writing Mrs. Harry VerWey, 16951 New England, Tinley Park, or telephone KEllogg 2-4787.

Mrs. VerWey is the Campership and Camp Stamp chair man of the Camping committee for South Cook County Girl Scout Council.

Browsing Through The Cold Stove League

By DEAN DALLAS

Rich looms much, much larger on the championship horizon for many these days. The Rockets stayed unbeaten in did Oak Lawn over the week-end. Bremen, picked by a row to win its second straight SW Suburban crown, looked plenty ragged over the week-end in absorbing two straight losses.

With the injury of two key players at Rich, Lincoln-Way is now pretty much out of the picture. One can't forget the season's opener with Bremen—when Kruzich's men were intact.

Carl Sandburg, who just looked worse than Rich, a couple of weeks ago was good enough to top Reavis, conquerer of Thornton Fractional. Then the Adamsmen fell on Lincoln-Way for a second straight win. Maybe the Eagle is soaring—however, don't look for it up on the top.

Bremen High has one of the best frosh-soph outfits in the conference. The scores of 58-25 have been the more regular ones. Thornton Fractional is the only first game quintet to give difficulty for the Braves.

Look for Bremen to return again to the position of power in the SW Suburban League!

It isn't probable that any real change will result in the SW Suburban League alignment in the next couple of years. Rumor has it: the teams will remain in exact same way as they are now set up. No team has indicated a desire to leave the conference. Some have indicated a desire to come into it—and this is highly improbable.

The rabid basketball fan is now deciding how, what, when, and where he will attend those things that make great basketball teams and players—the various playoffs.

If you are looking for the one of interest: the date for district play of smaller schools is Feb. 23-27 and there will be 42 such games; Regional efforts begin on March 2—finish —5; Sectional play is March 11-13. Out of this comes the "sweet sixteen". Many have wondered why Chicago gets just one high school represented and rather sparsely populated areas can't get a few teams in. Population consideration-wise—indicates that the average Chicago high school boy does not get the chance that a Southern Illinois lad does to make the "sweet sixteen". A little basketball "gerrymandering" appears to be the problem. Enough said!

Harvey and Joliet will be the regional competition centers. Blue Island will be the sight of the sectional play-offs for Dwight, Harvey, Joliet and Kankakee.

The Blue Island winner will meet the Hinsdale winner at Hinsdale for one of the final sixteen places for the state finals.

Fifty-six students at Bremen High School received football awards recently.

Richard Falk and William Wilkie were named as next year's gridiron captains.

It was also mentioned that Dennis Tattum was the first Bremen player ever to gain any kind of position on the All-State selections. Tattum was fullback on the Special Mention List—above honorable mention.

That roundball is bringing its chills to our area teams . . . referees are giving the defensive teams a great deal of consideration this season in the basketball games . . . We are only per-missable for editors and tapeworms . . . Coach Kruzich from Lincoln-Way would like Santa Claus to bring back his injured lads . . . Well—pip—cheerio.

Community Center Foundation Plans Annual Christmas Rites

The Community Center Foundation of Palos Park will again carry out some of the Christmas traditions in the days just before Christmas. Those traditions have been part of the program since the early days at the Center and engender a spirit of good will and friendship.

The Christmas candle-light vesper service will be held at the Wayside Chapel at 4:30 on Sunday, December 21. The organist will be Mrs. Carlton E. Wood of Palos Heights and the soloist Mrs. Harold L. Langdon of Palos Park. The Rev. Paul T. Sanders will deliver the meditation. The weekly Fellowship Tea in the Main Lodge will follow the service.

That evening the old custom of hanging the greens will take place at 7:00 p.m. At this time the rooms in the lodge will be decorated with greens and a large Christmas tree placed in the Main Hall and decorated. Smaller trees will be put in the dining room and sitting room. Afterwards trip thru the community on the hayrack by the young people singing carols. Taking part in the service afterwards will be Douglas Laing of Or-land Park who will light the Yule log after it has been brought into the lodge by some of the youth of the community.

The evergreen twigs will be given out by Connie Dee Cisna and Valerie Langdon of Palos Park. Mrs. Robert A. Gray of Palos Park will play for the Christmas carols and singing will be led by Paul M. Sanders of Portland, Oregon. Comments on the origins of the carols will be made by Frank M. Sanders, newly appointed Assistant Director of the Foundation.

Mrs. Ralph E. Cook of Palos Park will read "The Sacrament of Fire" by John Oxenham. The reading of the Christ mas Bible story and the story of Christmas traditions will be given by the Rev. Mr. Sanders. After the service there will be refreshments and carol singing.

These festive occasions are open to the community and all are invited to attend.

Recently Formed K. of C. Council Installs Officers

On December 10 the first meeting of the Father C. C. Boyle Council 4698 of the Knights of Columbus was held in the school hall of St. George parish, Tinley Park.

The meeting was held primarily to install the newly elected officers, set meeting dates and to appoint various chairmen.

District Deputy Harold Hilbert, with the aid of Gordon Davis, past Grand Knight of St. Rita Council, installed the following officers: Grand Knight, John Logsdon; Deputy Grand Knight, Frances Ziska; Chancellor, Ivo Mersman; financial secretary, Peter Oohman; Recording secretary, Roman Mazurowski; Warden, Joe Vladika; treasurer, William McCarty; Lecturer, Archie Albert; trustees, John Connolly, Edward Goletic and G. J. Stech; Advocate, Robert Hoogervorst; and guards, Phil Bruckbauer, Nick Wieler and John Avis. Appointed to the office of Chaplain was Father Thomas O'Connell, pastor of St. Georges. The majority of the members were present at this meeting to witness the ceremony.

The meeting dates were decided as the first and third Thursday of each month at 8:30 pm.

This Council aims to be a great asset to the church and the community. An energetic Grand Knight has been elected and the members of this newly founded Council are more than eager to set themselves a place in the Order and play a part in local civic affairs.

EXTEND TIME—
die has nothing to do with the bond election." Wennlund said. "The Taxpayers Equality Association members are for the bond issue 100 per cent."

The reassessment of New Lenox township was made by two men hired by the treasurer's office. They are said to have followed a form prescribed by the state department of revenue, and measured buildings, on the outside, as a means of fixing values.

The figures and valuations were placed on cards, one card for each piece of property. The information from the cards were then placed in the tax books and the assessment rolls made up from the books. At least that is what is supposed to have been done and one of the things Mr. Krapf wants to ascertain from his study of the books is whether this procedure was carried out.

It was pointed out that the treasurer has many duties and that it is impossible for him to attend to every detail in person.

Mr. Krapf believed that the rolls were prepared from the books and the books made up from the cards.

Relative to these cards, New Lenox Supervisor John Francis went into the treasurer's office in October to ascertain how the work was going on the assessment rolls. Mr. Francis said that he had understood that some changes had been made in valuations that were at considerable variance with like property.

"I talked to Mr. Krapf," Mr. Francis said. "He got the cards and we looked at some of them. He told me then that the information from the cards had been placed in the books. He said that if I wanted more time to look at them and if Mr. Marshall (George Marshall, New Lenox assessor) and I wanted to check them against our knowledge of village property, I could take some of the cards back to the village and check them over. He said that if we found anything we thought was incorrect to make a pencil notation on the cards."

"The assessor and I looked at some of the cards that night and jotted down some figures that we thought were more correct in some cases. We didn't go thru many of the cards. Just those applying to property in the old part of the village."

"I don't believe that we had any of the cards covering property in the east end of the township, including Lincolnwood. I don't recollect seeing any, anyway."

"There has been considerable talk about valuations in Lincolnwood remaining unchanged so I compared the published figures of this year with the previous figures and they were the same. It is possible that this was due to a clerical error. In making up the books a clerk might have gotten hold of the old figures."

Mr. Francis said that he had the cards only a few days and then returned them to Mr. Krapf. The latter came out to New Lenox and viewed some of the property in light of the assessments. Supervisor Francis said, and at that time agreed that there were inequalities and that he would call them to the attention of the board of review when the rolls were published.

"He pointed out," Mr. Francis said, "that it was so late that it would be best to take the complaints up with the board of review."

There is considerable variance in valuations, Mr. Francis said, and he was in favor of whatever is necessary to cure the situation, a reassessment or a wholesale adjustment.

In the event of an adjustment it is expected that quite a number of pieces of property would be given a higher value. There are some that would remain the same and in a comparatively few cases the valuations would be lowered.

The Taxpayers Equality Association is not interested in getting lower valuations or higher valuations, a spokesman said, but in getting fair and equitable assessments. If the valuation is to be 55 per cent of the property's value, then they want all property figured on that basis, not only in New Lenox township but in all townships.

Make sure ends of metallic icicles and other ornaments don't dangle in light sockets. Don't use flammable decorations.

When shopping for children's toys: Choose toys which aren't too heavy for youngsters to handle.

NEED MORE ROOM at Lincoln-Way high school. These are a couple of views that illustrate that the need for additional space at the school. The top picture, taken in the boys' locker room, shows room at a premium and changing clothes there is really a chore. The picture below shows one of the hallways near the music room. The cupboards stored in the hall should be in one of the rooms but the increase in students has crowded them out. Now they have transformed the hall into an obstacle course. Students and teachers hope the bond issue will pass Saturday so the school board can proceed with building more classrooms, more space for shops and increase the size of the locker rooms. The girls' locker room, which is just as crowded as the boys' also would be enlarged.

PTA News

NEW LENOX

Members of the New Lenox Parent Teacher Association met Dec. 11 in the Haven school auditorium. Mrs. Helen Bell, vice president, presided over the business meeting.

Safety in the school was explained by Supt. John Oster. The program consisted of choral and musical numbers given by the Lincoln-Way high school students, and directed by Tom Olsen. Milton Mojzls, band director, talked on music in the grade school.

A. Hunter Chapman, superintendent of Lincoln-Way high school, told about the proposed bond issue, and enlargement of Lincoln-Way high school. He urged all residents to vote on this issue Dec. 20.

Mrs. Lois Meyer's 5th grade room won the room honors. A social hour followed, with the fifth grade mothers as hostesses.

"Toys should stir the imagination, encourage creative ability and train the child for better living. But many times parents order things which turn out to be dangerous."

LAW TO CRACK—

up of Traffic Condition Yellow, which ends at 6 p.m. Dec. 24.

The Yellow Alert was put into effect to caution drivers—before the holidays actually started—of the extreme dangers brot on by the combination of winter driving hazards and the heavier volume of holiday traffic, plus social drinking.

Robert A. Campbell, Illinois Co-ordinator of Traffic Safety, described the two alerts as "potential life-savers".

"These alerts are designed to impress upon each driver the importance of safe, sober and courteous driving during the holiday," he said.

"If each motorist will realize the heavy volume of holiday traffic and the usual winter driving hazards combine to make driving at this time of year especially hazardous, I'm sure we can reduce holiday accidents and fatalities substantially," Campbell declared.

much time wasted as a result. The board gave approval to a plat for Briarwood subdivision submitted by the owners, Burton Breidert of Frankfort, and Walter Welch, of the Welch Lumber Co. The subdivision is on South Wolf road, west of Wolf and north of Cleveland road. Van Horn woods serve as the south and east boundaries. There are 14 lots and the minimum is 30,000 square feet. The minimum frontage is 80 feet. It will be limited to single family residents and the houses must have a minimum of 1,200 square feet and may not exceed two stories in height nor have garages larger than for two cars. All house plans must be approved by the developers.

New Lenox Toastmasters Fete Wives

A recent meeting of the New Lenox Toastmasters club was a Ladies' Night affair, with wives of the members as special guests. Several "alumni" of the New Lenox club were present, with their wives. Some seven members of Joliet Toastmistresses also attended and took part in the program for the evening.

William Heidrich was toastmaster. Stanley Gilmore gave the topics for impromptu comment from the floor. Elias Brown made the formal speech of the evening, "The Onrush of Tide", an analysis of results that may be expected from another hundred years of world population growth at the present rate.

In a humorous debate, "Resolved That Pockets Should be Eliminated from Men's Suits", Miss Veta Sunderburk, of Joliet Toastmistresses, won the decision over Lew Loebe, of New Lenox. Miss Sunderburk presented the affirmative.

Meeting was evaluated by Mrs. A. J. Caron, of Joliet Toastmistresses.

The purchase of the World Book was made possible thru the donations to a fund raised in memory of relatives of club members. This encyclopedia set had been needed, and donors hope that much use will be made of it by students.

GOOD WILL TOWARD MEN

To the Biblical shepherds, the coming of the promised Prince of Peace was proclaimed by a multitude of heavenly angels.

Since that day nearly 2,000 years ago, we pause annually to celebrate the Christ child's birth.

In our own celebrations of the Yuletide season, there have been times of gaiety...times of gladness, of joy. There are moments of sorrow to remember, too.

It is man's sacred duty to perpetuate the memory of departed loved ones with lasting monuments. We have a complete line from which you may select a memorial to fit any need.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor: Holiday Greetings

The Orland Park Junior Women's club expresses Christmas greetings to all of its members and neighbors.

As American Home chairman I wish to remind you that this is a wonderful time to stress the point that Joy and Thanksgiving should not be a seasonal attitude. We all feel that giving presents to people will make them happy but remember, if we can give someone a present that will last for every day of the coming year, what a happier person they would be.

Give some of your patience and tolerance to someone who does not have enough;

Help someone to find the importance of regular attendance at church;

When making plans for holiday fun, don't forsake the children's pleasures by being too busy to plan for them.

In the hustle of the holidays let us not reduce Christ to an "X". That is the symbol for the unknown and can you say that Christ is unknown to you? Let's put Christ back in Christmas. This can be done by our thoughts, words and deeds. A blessed season is ahead so let's enjoy it by remembering the meaning of the First Christmas.

My warmest holiday greetings and may God Bless you in your American Home.

Sincerely,
Mrs. George A. Johnson

This 'Egypt' Has Borrowed from That Egypt

JOHN W. ALLEN
(So. Ill. Univ.)

Numerous folk sayings and superstitions and occasional rituals found in southern Illinois are very, very old. These bits of lore often can be traced back thru thousands of years to long vanished civilizations. Hundreds of odd beliefs and superstitions have doubtlessly been forgotten, but hundreds of others have survived passage by word of mouth from ancient people who have contributed to our present culture. Such a fact became very apparent to this "Egyptian" when he recently met and talked with a real Egyptian.

The meeting occurred late on a blustery, near-zero night in an almost empty Chicago railway station where the writer was waiting for a midnight train. A strange appearing man came into the large room and seated himself across the open space in front of me. He looked interesting, the kind one would like to talk with, but there was no opportunity to begin a conversation. Just then, however, two men came in with a long ladder and the answer.

They placed the base of the ladder against a bench and leaned its top against a ceiling beam across an aisle. Before either workman had mounted it, another man hurriedly entered the waiting room and started to pass under the ladder. Seeing it over his pathway he halted abruptly, turned back and walked around a group of seats to go on his way. The real Egyptian, observing the man's strange actions, appeared startled. Taking advantage of the situation, I said to the stranger, "The man feared that if he walked under the ladder it would bring misfortune to him." He replied, "Some of my people also believe that." The conversation was under way; the subject easy to guess.

The Egyptian seemed well informed on the folklore of his country and tho he did not appear to believe it nor in anywise be influenced by it, he was pleased to talk about folk beliefs and customs. Comparison of notes soon revealed that many of the half remembered bits of lore in our "Egypt" were part of the lore of his Egypt thousands of years ago.

He was interested in the account of how our "Egypt" had acquired its name but was somewhat vague on the story of Joseph and his brethren and of "going down into Egypt for corn." He was interested in our place names of Thebes, Karnak, Cairo and Memphis.

From him it was learned that the "eyes" in peacock feathers exercised evil influences in the valley of the Nile five thousand years ago. The ancient Egyptians also believed that the cry of a peacock beneath a window foretold misfortune somewhat like the wailing of our banshee. Both beliefs linger here.

Egyptians of long ago uttered phrases of praise or imprecation, blessings when they sneezed. Today we often hear the sneeze of someone nearby say "gesundheit." In the spring, the beginning of their new year, they had observances that featured eggs. We have Easter. They believed that birds could hear news and carry it to a favored few. Today, "A little bird told me." Swallows, they thought, buried themselves in mud for the winter. Until bird migrations were understood, we thought too. "The goose that laid the golden egg" possibly was their bird god that laid the sun.

Women then used pencils to shape their brows and emphasize eye shape. Lips were painted red to prevent chapping or the entrance of evil spirits. The custom persists but the objectives are different.

The spilling of salt 5000 years ago was a misfortune. It was so in De Vinci's Last Supper. It still is unless one picks up a bit of the spilled salt and tosses it over his left shoulder.

The list could go on and on. If Greece, Rome and other nations of the ancient world were included, many more bits of folklore would be found to be thousands of years old.

Church Holds Annual Election of Officers at Meeting Dec. 7

By ELIZABETH ANDERSON
Lockport 886W2

The annual election of Homer church officers followed a well attended worship service and fellowship luncheon on Dec. 7. The following were elected and will assume their duties for 1959 on Jan. 1: Mrs. George Burcham, clerk; Mrs. John White, treasurer; Loren Aspel replaced Delbert Shepherd as deacon; Mrs. Lois Swanson was elected to follow Mrs. Freeman Cook as deaconess. (Both Mr. Shepherd and Mrs. Cook have moved from the neighborhood.) Bruce Anderson, trustee; Mrs. Earl Burn and Mrs. Ira Anderson, co chairmen of finance committee; Otto Moravec and G. C. Frazer, ushers; Mrs. John Hollister, music director; Betty Anderson, organist; Faye Rodgers, assistant organist; John Hollister, S. S. superintendent; Edna Mae Burcham, S. S. secretary and treasurer; Faye Rodgers and Faye Anderson, copianists for Sunday school.

Reports were given by Mrs. Burcham and Mrs. White, clerk and treasurer, by Mrs. Robert Shepherd for the Missionary society; by Mrs. Reed Burch for the King's Daughters, by Edna Budcham for the Sunday school; Jerome Paddock reported for the deacons and Bruce Anderson for the trustees. Theodore Grimm told the history of the Couples' club, Susanne Burcham accounted for the P. F. and Donald Aspel for the school fund.

Several items of business were discussed, but they were tabled for want of time.

The James Holloway family have moved from the Wrey White cottage to Joliet; the Warren Whites are now living in the little home.

Rev. and Mrs. Hanson entertained the Couples club in their home Friday evening at a Christmas party which included a gift exchange.

Joyce Habenicht spent last weekend in her home on Hillcrest rd.

Several bullet holes were put in the windows of Homer Consolidated school during the past weekend.

According to plans made at a recent meeting of the Will county road committee 92 miles of new roads are to be made in the county during the next five years. Included in the plans are 3 1/2 miles of Goodings Grove rd. and a new bridge over the Big Run. To be finished this year is 3 miles of Cedar rd.

Mrs. Charles Jensen was detained from her work by illness last Monday; Mrs. Henry Rodgers has been suffering with a sore foot, sustained when she stumbled on a piece of furniture in her home. Both ladies are teachers at Homer Consolidated.

Several Homer women attended the Christmas party of the Marley Women's club at the White Chimney in Joliet, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kelly, 147th st., have returned from a southern trip of business and pleasure. On Thanksgiving day they visited his brother's family at Jeffersontown, Ky., where also are located their parents, the Charles Kelly's, who formerly lived in Homer.

Special Christmas observanc es will begin Sunday morning at the worship hour when there will be music by the choir and carols by the congregation with an appropriate sermon. In the evening at 7:30 the Sunday school will participate in the program followed by a tree and gift exchange.

Make Digest of Public Workers Pension Laws

MAURICE SCOTT
By Exec. Sec. Taxpayers
Federation of Illinois

Major provisions of 260 separate pension funds are described in tabular form in a report released today by the Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois. This report, "Pension Digest," gives the major provisions of public employee pension laws in Illinois, except for the governments of Chicago and Cook County.

The pension field is normally considered a highly technical and confusing subject. The various laws authorizing the many pensions are scattered thruout the statutes. As stated by Dorothy W. Otten, director of personnel and pension research for the Federation, and author of the study, "This report will facilitate comparisons of the several pension systems."

Concerned with pensions for public employees for many years, the Federation supports so-called pensions for such personnel as one means of insuring a high caliber and stable working force to carry out the important functions of our State and local governments. At the same time, the organization believes that taxpayers have a legitimate interest in this subject, since so large a share of the costs is theirs, and has as one of its goals the translation of this interest into a program of constructive action.

The Federation has included in this program for constructive action planks calling for reduction in the number of individual pension funds, establishment of uniform benefits and rates of contribution on a major occupational basis, and establishment of a higher discount rate for early retirement.

Failure to appropriate currently sufficient funds to pay benefits promised in pension laws is shortsighted. The obligations these laws create are real, not fictional. The Federation believes that the accumulation of deficiencies should be arrested.

A. Hunter Chapman, superintendent of Lincoln Way High school expressed the need for a new addition to the school at the Ann Rutledge grade school Parent-Teacher meeting Dec. 8. A special election will be held Saturday, Dec. 20, to vote on a proposed bond issue for the addition.

Calvert Heath Jr., president and led the Pledge to the Flag Mrs. George Kaehler read the PTA prayer.

Teacher Lloyd Alton's room again won the attendance banner for having the most parents present.

Mrs. James Dixon reported on the progress of the "names" calendar. Candy is being sold by the PTA to raise money.

The organization now has a file cabinet for their records. They request anyone having any PTA records or anything concerning the school of interest for the records, to submit them at the school office on Public Employee Pensions, headed by Conrad Orloff, vice president, Marsh & McLennan Incorporated, strongly supported the idea behind the "Pension Digest." In addition, W. A. Hurlbut, supervisor and actuary, Pension Division, Illinois Department of Insurance, and A. A. Weinberg, actuary, Illinois Public Employees Pension Laws Commission, reviewed the report and supplied valuable information which resulted in a more understandable pension study.

The Gift of BETTER SLEEP for someone special on your list

Give an Automatic Electric Bedcover for Christmas

Almost anyone on your Christmas list would love to get an electric blanket or electric sheet. Matter of fact, more than 20 million people sleep better this way (and feel better when they wake up, too). There are lots of reasons why electric bedcovers make such perfect gifts:

- ★ They give warmth without weight. An electric bedcover provides the comfort of 3 ordinary blankets, yet often weighs less than one.
- ★ Chilly sheets are gone forever. Just set the control a little before bedtime and your bed is warm when you're ready for sleep.
- ★ They offer single or dual controls to suit individual comfort preferences. Automatic controls adjust comfort level to changes in room temperature.

★ Modern electric bedcovers can be laundered beautifully either at your regular laundry or in a modern automatic washer.

★ There are contoured models in both single and double bed sizes to make bedmaking quick and easy. Plenty of foot room, too, so covers won't be "kicked off."

★ All makes fully approved by Underwriters' Laboratories. It's your assurance of absolute safety—many years of dependable service.

Will County Christmas Seal Sale Returns Reach $23,548 to Date

INE. MUST Will county 2-246P

The fourth week of the current tuberculosis Christmas Seal Sale in Will county has drawn to a close. The time for mail reminders is near. They will be prepared and mailed Saturday, Dec. 20. George A. Shepley, Will county's Seal Sale chairman, urges all the people of the county who have not yet sent in their contributions, to do so this week and thereby avoid receiving a reminder. This will also save money for the TB association which can then be used for other phases of the over all program of tuberculosis control.

As of noon Sat., Dec. 13, the returns in Will County amounted to $23,548.80.

This is 56% of the $42,000.00 budgetary requirement set by the Will County TB Assn. board before the Christmas Seal Sale started.

Last year on Dec. 24, the returns for Will County amounted to 83% of the total contributed in that campaign. If that pattern continues this year, returns by Christmas Eve this year should amount to $34,860.00. This means that $11,312.00 should be contributed in the next ten days.

Amounts contributed in the area to date are: New Lenox twp., $652.; Frankfort twp., $734; Green Garden, $72; Homer, $230; Lockport, $2,580 and Manhattan, $282.

Vote At School Election Saturday, December 20, 1958

VOTE NO

We sincerely desire to improve the educational facilities of our children. Will the proposed $500,000 addition do this? Mention is made of several academic classrooms. How many is several? Will this present expansion program take care of the real needs, and for how long? Can we afford to have unnecessary expansion such as locker rooms and music rooms when our real needs are for more classrooms to provide our children with what they are going to school for, an education, and can we afford it? The statement is made that many temporary classrooms are in use and some are overcrowded, yet this all becomes lost in the items mentioned such as music room, boys' and girls' toilet rooms, basement storage, locker rooms and shop addition. If there is a real concern over class size why not concentrate on classrooms.

No mention is made in the pamphlet sent by the school board as to the square feet of the expansion so that the taxpayers can arrive at the actual cost a square foot. The newspaper article mentions the first unit of 16,110 sq. ft. for $361,000. This would make a cost of over $22.00 a sq. ft. which is excessive. The Mokena School Board was able to build a new school for only $10.50 a sq. ft., why should this addition be over twice as much?

All these questions should be answered before you as a taxpayer allocate this money. Because they have not been answered vote no Dec. 20.

FARM NEWS

For Cook County
by
W. F. Whiteside

Assistant farm adviser

One of the most universally disliked tasks that confronts us is preparing and keeping records. Since all memories can't accurately recall what happened 12 months ago, records are necessary. I have been busy helping prepare the 1958 annual report of extension activities. It is enlightening to compare this report with reports of previous years. 4-H project opportunities have been expanded to include automotive maintenance, gardening indoors, photography, bird study and dog care. The changes make it possible for more suburban youngsters to take advantage of 4-H membership.

Reports for the last five years reveal the names of several 4-H members who have won high honors. Ronald Kollman, Harvey, Bill Lorenz, Chicago Heights, Julia Gray, Palos Heights, and Audrey Mascitti. Steger, were delegates to National 4-H Club Congress. Ronald Kollman, Bill Lorenz, Audrey Mascitti, Julia Gray, Joseph Mulderink, Blue Island and Leslie Allen Yunker, Orland Park, received the coveted Key Club Award.

C. L. Mast, Jr., Flossmoor and Floyd Adair, Chicago Heights, were cited as outstanding 4-H Alumni.

Ronald Kollman, Bill Lorenz, Joseph Mulderink, Darrell Erickson, Mokena and Robert Stellwagen, Tinley Park have been delegated to Junior Leadership Conference.

These are some of the events which made headlines. Most of the 3,000 4-Hers enrolled during the last five years didn't make headlines; however, we are very proud of them and of their accomplishments. Their project work represents several hundred thousand dollars in tangible terms and countless thousands more in the intangibles of valuable experiences of fellowship, recreation, citizenship, learning by doing and just "growing up".

The 4-H Federation held its annual Christmas party on a bitterly cold evening last week. The group enjoyed hearing one of our 4-H members, Marilyn Nickel, Elgin, relate her experiences while visiting farm families in Austria last summer. Marilyn made this trip as a part of the International farm youth exchange. Thru this program, over 500 American young people have visited in 37 foreign countries. In return, young people from foreign lands visit in American homes. Cook county is proud of Marilyn and is also proud to have been host to two foreign visitors, Kumar Jadapa from India, stayed three weeks with the Herbert Kohl family in Rich township. Kirsti Gunther from Norway, lived with the Roy Nickel family near Elgin. I believe this program does much to foster better international relations. What better place to start than with young people in the common denominator of all countries, the home.

A training program for 4-H Club officers will be held the second week in January. All clubs who haven't reorganized, should do so, and encourage the new officers to attend the training school.

The Vegetable Growers school will be held Jan. 14. It will be a program packed with valuable information. The location will be announced soon.

State Counts Everyone Lobbyist Who Seeks to Influence Assembly

Those persons appearing for or against any legislation before the next general assembly are required to sign the "docket of legislative agents" and submit recent photographs of themselves, the Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois stated today.

Specifically the new law reads: "Every person, corporation or association which employs any person to promote or oppose in any manner the passage by the legislature of any legislation affecting the interests of any individual, association or corporation as distinct from those of the whole people of the state, or to act in any manner as a legislative agent in connection with any such legislation, shall within one week after the Seventy-first general assembly convenes (and within one week after the convening of all subsequent general assemblies) or within one week after the date of such employment, whichever is later, cause the name of the person so employed or agreed to be employed to be entered upon a legislative docket as herein-after provided."

Any elected or appointed official of any governmental unit, office, commission, or agency, when appearing in behalf of such governmental unit, office, commission or agency to influence legislation, must also register his name on the docket.

Secretary of State Charles F. Carpenter, who is charged with the administration of the new law, is already setting the machinery in operation for the keeping of this docket. Forms are in readiness in the secretary's index department upon which the applicant registers his name and address, the name and address of his employer, and the name and address of the interest or group represented by him. At the time of filling out the form an applicant must also pay a $5 fee and submit a recent photograph of himself, preferably no larger than 3"x3". Upon approval of such application and receipt of the fee, the secretary of state shall issue a pocket card, or certificate of registration, which shall state the legislative agent's name and address and the name and address of the employer.

Sponsored by Representative Paul Powell at the last session of the general assembly, this act gives members of the legislature, newspapers and other news media, state officials and the public, pertinent information relative to individuals and organizations interested in legislative matters.

The gentlemen had a leisurely breakfast and then attended the Bear-Cardinal game at Wrigley Field, returning to the Henry Anderson's for dinner. Father Sweeney had tickets for the game as he seldom misses seeing it.

On Dec. 6 a spur of the moment idea turned into a fun filled evening. Three couples and their children spent the evening bowling at the new bowling lanes in Lockport. It was suggested Laguna get up a League and bowl mixed doubles. This has been mentioned often.

Mrs. Bebe Andrew recently returned from a Florida vacation. Her daughter accompanied her.

Laguna neighbors who were shopping at Old Orchard, near Evanston, unexpectedly met Laguna neighbors All agreed it was a day well spent.

LUNGREN 2-24 INSIDE

Edgar E. Lungren, Aurora, executive vice-president of Northern Illinois Gas Company, will retire from active service with the utility effective Jan. 1. He announced his retirement plans at the company's board of directors meeting last week.

The board elected Edward D. Sheehan, who is presently vice-president in charge of operations, to succeed Lungren. At the same time Charles F. Hennessy, Park Ridge, and Loren W. Tuttle, West Chicago, were named vice-presidents. Hennessy will be in charge of divisions, and Tuttle in charge of operation.

Lungren, a leading figure in the development and growth of the gas industry during his 43-year career has been NI-Gas executive vice-president since 1933. He will continue as a member of the gas company's board of directors.

Sheehan has been associated with utility managerial and executive roles for more than 32 years. He was elected to his present position in 1954 and became a director last June.

Hennessy began his utility career in 1925, while Tuttle observed his 35th anniversary in the gas business earlier this year. Both have served in numerous managerial roles during their careers and were named assistant vice-presidents in February.

Sheehan's office will be in Aurora while both Hennessy and Tuttle's headquarters will remain in Bellwood.

Lurid Literature and Crime

While psychologists, psychiatrists, and law enforcing bodies search for the answer to juvenile delinquency, shocking headlines and lurid details of juvenile depravity still appear. In one recent week, teenagers murdered parents and other members of their families.

The majority of crimes perpetrated by teenagers carry some very slim excuses for murder. One teenager killed his mother because he could not use the family car. Others have blamed nagging of parents as the reason for killing them.

What is the cause? What is the remedy? Sociologists and the other experts still search.

The movies, television, and lurid literature all have been blamed for increased juvenile delinquency. But according to Hollywood, crime is here to stay. Because it is what the public wants, movie makers contend, that is what the public will get. They cite that the most popular movies of last year, making the most money at the box office, were those dealing in brutality and horror, mixed with sex.

Cooperating with the Rev. Paul W. Eldridge, pastor of the Tinley Park Community Bible church, the owner of Cavett's Drug stores, William Einhorn, has added some very wholesome reading material to the drugstore shelves. These include a display of Moody Colportage books and publications of the Back to the Bible broadcast representing choice and low cost booklets.

The length of time parents and the general public accept what comes to them in their living room, at the movies, and on the book stalls, is the length of time that smut will be fed to them.

If calendar makers ever filled in the spaces devoted to dates with the special events attributed to each the result would be so bulky that it would have to be kept in the garage—if you have a two car garage, that is, and only one car.

We are a promotion minded people and fair game for the inventors of slogans and all the other gimmicks that mark the drives and campaigns with which we are inflicted.

This situation is so much velvet for the press agents, who have taken a page out of their own books and now dub themselves public relation consultants, promotion engineers or— heaven save the mark— public relations.

Whatever they call themselves they have the same goal that they had when they called themselves press agents— free advertising for their clients, whether such clients be persons or merchandise.

Everyone is getting into the act. The kraut makers, for example, have two periods, one in February, in conjunction with the frankfurter interests and thru half of October and all of November with the pork and apple contingent.

Just what America's Heartland Development Month is supposed to be is a mystery to me but probably I will get some mail on it one of these days.

There is an American Family Shoe Time, a lighting fixture month and a week in February to be devoted to weight watching.

Now whether National Sweater Week should be moved from its present spot in September to one closer to weight watching or National Correct Posture Week in May is something that should be looked into. Maybe it should be linked with Better Living week in October.

There is a Pancake week some place along the line and to hook it up with 100% Pure Maple Syrup week in September would be a natural.

Personally we rather like the idea of National Tax Freedom Holiday, May 11, and have a vain hope that it catches on in Congress.

Pick most any kind of product, any type of merchandise and there is a day, week or month set aside to expound upon its virtues. Remember that business about the people beating a path to the door of the maker of better mouse traps? Well, I'm sure there is a mouse trap week now. May be, if they get organized and hire a public relations firm, the mice themselves will have a special week.

There are a couple of lines in a recent speech made by Secretary of the Interior Seaton before a state reclamation association that all of us should memorize:

"The only pocket Uncle Sam has is yours. All he can do is take money from you and then on occasion give—or loan—some of it back."

It might be well to remember too that food faddism which is spreading thruout the nation is not only costing the American public around $500-million a year but is also becoming a menace to public health.

As the American Medical Association puts it, the buyer who relies on vitamin mineral concentrates and odd-ball cereal mixtures to cure unidentified ailments may face tragic results.

The modern witch-doctors make large claims for the curative powers of their products. It is not unusual for them to profess that one product will effect cures of ailments as diverse as stomach ulcers, arthritis, neuritis, bad vision, high blood pressure

TUBERCULOSIS

Examination of skeletons discovered in ancient tombs reveals that tuberculosis existed long before the birth of Christ. It was described in the earliest medical records. It has been a very serious medical problem ever since. No branch of the human race has escaped the touch of tuberculosis.

Altho tuberculosis may infect any part of the body, it most commonly affects the lungs. The source of infection and falling hair.

The medicos contend that no one needs these pseudo-health foods when he follows a normal, varied diet. They point out that the most economical and best source of all the nutritious foods your body needs is your own garden, the grocery store and meat counter.

A steak tastes better than a pill and in the long run is not as expensive.

"I think his brakes are grabbing."

is usually another person—hence new cases are frequently found in the household or neighborhood. It is important to realize that humans have a good deal of native resistance against this disease. Few people who become infected die of tuberculosis.

It has long been recognized that malnutrition, poor sanitation and overcrowding are powerful forces that favor the development of this infection. Children are especially susceptible. The first major victory in the war against tuberculosis was won when it was realized that the disease is spread by close contact. Hospitals were established just to care for tuberculosis patients under ideal conditions to provide complete rest, good food and fresh air. The results were gratifying. In recent years, as more and more people achieved better housing and nutrition, the frequency of tuberculosis infection has begun to drop sharply.

The most accurate means of diagnosing tuberculosis is with the chest x-ray, and of course the earlier a case is discovered, the better the chance of rapid recovery. The Mobile x-ray units that now routinely visit all our communities contribute a great deal to the early discovery of tuberculosis. However, this benefit depends on all of us taking advantage of the opportunity to obtain this chest x-ray at regular intervals.

In the past decade or two, a most important breakthrough has occurred in the continuing war against tuberculosis. A drug, streptomycin, was discovered that could at least partially control the tuberculosis germs. Since its introduction, several newer drugs have been developed to be used with streptomycin and increase its beneficial action.

These antibiotics have revolutionized the care of the patients. In some instances of mild infection, patients may safely be treated at home with the protection provided by this medication. Previously even the mildest cases needed long periods of sanatorium care.

The most dramatic progress has been made in the treatment of the more advanced cases of infection. In the past, such patients usually required both years of hospitalization and multiple, serious operations. Such surgery often succeeded only in halting the progress of the disease without being able to eradicate it.

Today's modern treatment can, in many instances, completely remove all trace of tuberculosis. Even in the most serious cases, better control is usually achieved than ever before in the history of the disease. Patients are first intensively treated with rest and antibiotics. When the tuberculosis becomes stabilized and is localized to one section of the lung, surgery is performed to remove the diseased portion, leaving the patient free of infection. Surgical removal of tuberculosis lung tissue was rarely attempted until recent years. Now it is both commonplace and usually most successful.

Despite this most encouraging progress, there is still much to be done in the direction of reducing the number of people who contract tuberculosis and of recognizing those that do as early as possible. Only with continued vigilance and cooperation can today's bright picture be preserved for tomorrow. (NEXT WEEK: BACK TROUBLE)

Business and Finance

MAURICE P. ANGLAND

That 1959 will be a good business year, is attested by several large banks and insurance companies as well as some of the better known investment services.

Standard & Poor's, the largest of the investment advisory services, issued its forecast for 1959 in its publication of Dec. 8, 1958.

The comment states that a major force in 1959 recovery is the need to replenish inventories that were liquidated in 1958. It estimates that inventory liquidation in 1958, amounted to about $3.4 billion, the widest inventory correction since 1932 and that during 1959 these inventories will be built up by some $3 billion.

Corporate Capital improvements is expected to increase considerably during the year. Some of these expansion and re-equipment programs cancelled in 1958 are expected to be reinstated. It is rather generally agreed by investment surveys that the emphasis will be on equipment additions rather than on new buildings. Labor costs are forcing a speed up in automation. New discoveries are forcing industrial plants to add equipment in order to stay competitive in their industry.

In contrast with unorganized scientific efforts of some former years, we now have organized and intensified research activities which are well financed and adequate laboratory equipment. Industrial research is comparatively new. In 1941 the industry budget for research was less than $1 billion and in 1958 it will likely be shown to have been close to $8 billion. Research activities are running about 2 per cent of our Gross National Product. On this basis, the sums spent in research will be tremendous. The supplying of laboratory equipment and devices is now substantial business.

For some time market analysts have been referring to the 1960's as the "Golden Sixties" in which the large population upsurge and technological developments will combine to give us an excellent business picture with more and better things with less physical labor. Recreational devices and activities slanted to this greater leisure time market are expected to benefit.

Population growth is expected to be even greater than previously forecast by the Census Bureau. Population is now about 175 million and expected to be about 214 million in 1970.

Smaller families of the 1930's naturally reduced population of marrying ages in recent years and now stabilized at about 1,534,000 average in past five years. By 1970 the annual figure is expected to mount to 2,200,000.

Standard and Poor summarize their own comment in 1959, with "All factors considered, the business outlook can be viewed with great confidence, not only for 1959 but also for succeeding years—". Most of the services express idea that there are many investment opportunities.

Cook County Highway Engineer Advocates a Transportation Tax

(CNS)—The chief engineer of the Cook county highway department has advocated a "transportation tax" to finance a mass transportation facility to be integrated with a new "controlled access free-way" located in a grid pattern spaced about four miles apart.

Speaking before a forum conducted by the Traffic Club of Chicago, Chief Engineer Hugo J. Stark, according to the monthly bulletin of the county highway department, said:

"The method of financing the four-mile system is still under discussion. Under urban standards, it could be financed 50 per cent from federal funds if the state approved.

"As to financing an integrated mass transit facility, that is being investigated and studied by the Randolph Committee's mass transportation group, and their recommendation will undoubtedly be made to the next legislature.

"In the county highway department, we have discussed the financing and believe it should be termed a transportation tax, to be levied by a transportation authority and used as this agency sees fit to provide the best economical transportation."

The same week the Chicago Transit Authority asked the Randolph Committee for $31.5 million in public funds for 1959-61 for planning and initial construction phases of improvements and extensions of the subway-elevated system.

This is part of a 20-year program which includes $28 million for signal and train control systems, $31 million for the Northwest Rapid Transit extension toward O'Hare field, and $31.75 million for a rapid transit facility on the South Expressway from 30th street to 103rd and Doty on the Calumet Expressway.

"It is abundantly clear," said the CTA, "after 11 years that urgently needed extensions cannot be financed from riders' fares."

lie schools, transporting children between home and school, to and from outlying events and other group activities.

One Chicago firm, the Chicago School Transit, 7149 S. Exchange, joined in filing the complaint. The others have offices in Oak Lawn, Chicago Heights, Brookfield, Bridgeview and Summit.

They include Hodgman Bus Transportation Co., Oak Lawn; Kichert School Bus Lines, Chicago Heights; Clark Bus Service, Oak Lawn; Frank Rust, Oak Lawn; Safety Way Bus Corp., Brookfield; Valley Transit, Bridgeview; Skyline Transportation & Service Corp., Summit; and Great Lakes Charter, Summit.

Wet and Icy Roads Make for Hazardous Going

The motorist's winterizing program shouldn't end with the adding of anti freeze to the car radiator.

Because winter with its slippery roads and visibility problems is a critical period for drivers, there also should be a change in the attitude of the driver himself, according to Matthew C. Sielski, director of the Motor Club's safety and traffic engineering department.

Tests have proved that the braking distance on glare ice is twice as long at 30 degrees than at a zero temperature. The greatest skidding dangers exist when it is just cold enough for water to freeze.

Wet roads require cautious driving at reduced speeds. Slushy roads, usually accompanied by fog and early darkness, present many visibility problems, Sielski said. Windshield wipers should be in perfect working condition at all times to remove falling sleet or snow and splashes of slush from passing cars.

In this kind of weather, Sielski pointed out, headlights, not parking lights, should be turned on to warn both pedestrians and oncoming traffic.

Cold and wet weather also affect the inside windows of a car. For safety's sake, inside windows should be wiped or scraped clean, and defrosting equipment should function correctly.

"Always remember the danger of carbon monoxide poisoning," Sielski said. "Always guard against it by keeping at least one window partly open."

Foreign Ships Arrive Chicago in Record Numbers

(CNS) A new record total, 365, European and African ships, arrived at the Port of Chicago during the shipping season ended Nov. 26, Collector of Customs Frank Peska announced Friday.

This is 35 per cent above the 1957 total of 272.

The Calumet Harbor docks handled the largest share, 161 ships, followed by 115 at 95th street, 33 at Navy Pier, 31 at North Pier, and 26 at private docks.
